1 Botanical Walk on the Quantocks

For small groups (max 10 people)

Enjoy a guided scenic walk in the stunning Quantock Hills with Becky Wright, Dryad Gin's master distiller. Learn about the many plants used in crafting gin, each with its own fascinating story. Connect with nature and discover the enchanting tale of Dryad Gin. Visit The Dryad Tree, the inspiration behind this exceptional spirit, and uncover its mystical connection to the gin-making process.

2 Friendship Gin Making Session

For larger groups (6 or more)

Immerse yourself in the art of gin-making, hosted at your accommodation. Becky will guide your group through the process, introducing a variety of botanicals. The group will collectively choose the botanicals to make a bottle of friendship gin. Becky will then prepare your gin for you to enjoy after your holiday. Plus, try your hand at "DJ'ing" the botanicals with Becky's magical connection suitcase!

3 Gin Tasting Experience

For larger groups (6 or more)

Sample Dryad Gin along with some of the finest local gins in this tasting experience with our master distiller. Learn how different botanicals, tonics, and ice can transform the flavour of your drink. This is a fun, relaxed and educational session, and takes place at your accommodation, so you can enjoy the experience without the need to drive afterward.

Somerset's Multi Award Winning Dryad Gin

Dryad Gin is an award-winning spirit, with Gold Awards from Taste of the West and The Spirits Selection by Concours Mondial de Bruxelles.

We were also Highly Commended at The Gin Guide Awards.

Dryad's Master Distiller Becky Wright

A seasoned mixologist and master distiller, Becky blends formal qualifications and decades of experience in the gin world. After a vibrant career in public speaking, she trained as a distiller and founded Dryad Gin, a brand that celebrates Somerset's landscapes, stories, and customs.
